SPOTLIGHT ON ... Family and MWR Employee of the Month

RICHARD NEWLON
March Employee of the Month

Mr. Newlon went above and beyond by implementing the NAF Fleet Maintenance program. This program services all NAF government vehicles, ensuring that they are serviced and repaired semi-annually. This program also tracks all repair costs, to include parts and labor. By implementing this program, the Auto Skills Center team will be able to prevent major repairs from vehicles not being serviced saving Soldier dollars.

KRYSTAL SALSMAN April Employee of the Month

Ms. Salsman has proven herself to be an exemplary employee with a high level of commitment to quality work. She has taken on the project of cleaning, organizing and inventorying materials and supplies for her center. In addition Krystal created a tracking system, posted a conversion chart for frequently used measurements, and created a schedule for tracking deep cleaning tasks not covered under the CYs cleaning contract. Her efforts have contributed to an overall improvement in staff morale.

SPOTLIGHT ON ... Family and MWR Employee of the Month

LEIGH ANN SLINGER
May Employee of the Month

Ms. Slinger is the embodiment of "Going Above and Beyond". Her work ethic is something to be modeled after. The ability to take a task, make it your own, improve upon the processes, and generate a far superior outcome is done on a daily basis by Leigh Ann. She rejuvenated the Blue Star Program resulting in 98 newly registered Families and coordinated 15 Warrior Adventure Quest programs in the last 3.5 months.
