How do recreation programs and services benefit you?

Studies show that recreation programs offered through Family and MWR help increase Soldier and Family readiness and resilience. Take advantage of your benefits and check out the Rainbow Road Run on Saturday, May 16!

Participants in last year's Rainbow Road Run reported a score of 4.8 out of 5 that they felt an increase in morale and a decrease in their level of stress while participating in the run. Will you experience the same results?

For more information about this run call, 785-784-1000.

SPOTLIGHT ON ...

Family and MWR Employees of the Month

VERONICA BROWN

December Employee of the Month

Ms. Brown not only learned her new duties immediately but has strived to reach beyond, learn and contribute at a high level. She has taken it upon herself to get involved with the fitness program in many ways. Ms. Brown's enthusiasm and attention to detail has helped take the burden off other staff and advance the program. Ms. Brown's dedication and work ethic are a proud example of the DFMWR Sports team!

SHED MAYBERRY

January Employee of the Month

Mr. Mayberry performs a variety of tasks involving the maintenance and minor repairs of buildings, playground equipment, and toys along with keeping all entrances and exits free from debris, sidewalks clear of ice/snow and surfaces under playground structures safe. Mr. Mayberry also assists other facilities in DFMWR without any complaints. Mr. Mayberry is a true example of a team player who takes pride in his work.

HOPE JACKSON

February Employee of the Month

Ms. Jackson joined the marketing team coming from the events team and never skipped a beat. She programmed, marketed and led the execution of the first soap box derby, volunteers as a Team Member Orientation (TMO) Facilitator and recently took on the duty of troubleshooting and uploading patches to 34 digital advertising monitors. Ms. Jackson's hard work and dedication to duty reflects positively on Family and MWR.
